13. Unshipped-Order Policy

Unshipped orders that remain in our Order Management System can delay overall customer service, tie up available and contribute to service interruptions.

- Customers are expected to schedule ship dates (stock or job) within 10 business days from date of availability.
- Customer Service and/or Sales will inform the customer if an order has exceeded the 10 business-day shipping window.
- Customers will be permitted to reschedule the ship date within a period not to exceed 30 days past originally scheduled ship date.
- Orders that will not ship within that 30-day period will be subject to reassignment of inventory and subject to restocking charges.
- Orders for C, special-order or non-standard service items may not be cancelled without the approval of the Area Sales Manager after the material has been fabricated or is in the process of being fabricated.
